Presidential Chit Chat

Summer Greetings!

I hope you are all enjoying the sunshine and are, at the same time, being careful concerning the heat waves that are affecting so many areas! Keep cool!

We have had many opportunities to paint this summer! It's fun to see familiar faces on zoom! Thank you so much to Sue Black for organizing RAKs (Random Acts of Kindness) for Memory Boxes! Many thanks to Nancy Scott, Linda O'Connell and Laurie Weber for the beautiful designs and fun classes and also for our tech experts who bring these classes to us. Each class provided a wonderful painting experience while learning new techniques along the way. Still looking forward to painting with Stephanie Robinson on September 16 and Tracy Moreau on November 9. Don't miss them! Besides RAKs, there have been many other chances to paint with gifted artists. Be sure to check the calendar of events in the newsletter and at artroom2create.com. We are very fortunate!

Our September general meeting will be on September 10th at the Londonderry Senior Center. It will be great being together in person and on Zoom! The meeting will begin at 10:00 but be sure to come early to visit with friends and enjoy a cup of coffee and morning snacks. What to bring? Palette Pot-pourri, your memory boxes, brown bag raffles, nametags, bag lunch, painting supplies and smiles! Desserts will be provided. In the afternoon we will be painting with Arlene Linton on zoom. It's a beautiful blue and white plate. More information on the afternoon program is available in this newsletter.

Coming very soon! New England Traditions Convention is celebrating its 25th anniversary when we get together in Marlborough, MA in October. It will be such a celebration to be together to paint with our favorite artists or maybe find a new favorite! Living in New England, we are lucky to have this convention in our "backyard". Personally, I love to meet old friends and make new friends who have traveled to paint at the convention. Be sure to say "hi"!

Volunteers at NET are essential to a smoothly run convention. The lucky thing is, you have a chance to help! There is still a need! White Mountain's responsibilities for volunteering are the Class Display all during the convention, and Thursday at the Volunteer Center. If you can help at either of these, call Cheryl Barb (603)494-1959 about helping with Class Display and Mary Frambach (603) 496-2926 for the Volunteer Room. Speaking for myself, it's fun to help in this way!

To celebrate 25th years, there will be a 25th Anniversary Cookbook! If you'd like to reserve a copy (or more than one), contact Lynn Barbadora at lbarbadora@yahoo.com. We anticipate the cost to be about $15.00. It will make great holiday gifts! I'm making my list as I write. I'm sure the cookbook will inspire your future meals and bring good thoughts of painting friends.

Wishing you all good sunny days and happy painting!

Smiles,
Jacque Seastedt

Co-VP Chronicles

It's been a hot summer for this lady that prefers cold weather, and every day I pray for the snow gods to bless me with not only cold temps but glistening ice crystals as well.

We continue to offer monthly seminars, and it has been noticed that registrations have not been good. Perhaps instead of having monthly seminars, we should reduce how many we offer in 2024. There are so many choices out there these days, so we understand that you cannot do them all. Please start thinking about the teachers you would like to have next year and what style of painting you prefer to paint: flowers, scenes, cutesy, colored pencils, etc., and let me know. You can email me at wmdpg-carolyn@outlook.com

You can register for WMDPG seminars and RAK classes on the ArtRoom2Create website and WMDPG has a special tab - <https://www.artroom2create.com/category-s/150.htm>

Please remember we have Sandy McTier scheduled for September 9th, and she is teaching a beautiful mixed media piece. This piece uses DecoArt acrylic and Media Fluid paints. If you do not have the Media Fluid paints, no worries; you can simply use DecoArt acrylics.

Sandy McTier Designs

Pretty in Pink

Amy Mogish is teaching a design called "Apple Cider Donuts" for us on October 28th. This is a DecoArt and Prismacolor Colored Pencil piece.

We are having Karen Brouwer on November 18th.

RAK's

Remember Sue Black has arranged some wonderful RAK programs for us.

9/16/2023 – Stephanie Robinson will be teaching a design named "Strawberry Wreath" that was created by Erika JoAnne. Complete kits or JoSonja paint pots can be ordered from Stephanie. This project uses JoSonja paints and Prismacolor Colored Pencils.

11/9/2023 – Tracy Moreau will be teaching an RAK project.

For several years, we have been gifting painted ornaments to the New Hampshire Veterans Home. Please consider painting an ornament, and if you are coming to NET, you can drop it off at 'Class Display.' For those of you who do not know, this is our assigned task this year to support the convention. If you need to mail it, it can be sent to:

Carolyn Swasey
10 Berkshire Ln.

Looking forward to seeing you at the September meeting.

Best regards,

Carolyn

Afternoon Programs, See What is Coming Up!

Both the September 10th and November 12th afternoon programs will be at the Londonderry Senior Center and on Zoom, and each teacher will be teaching via Zoom. The afternoon programs start at 12:00.

Arlene Linton will be teaching on September 10th. She is teaching one of her 6-inch Blue Plate designs. They look like white painted on blue but actually the plate is base coated in white! It is a fun technique and easy to finish in four hours!

Rosemary West will be teaching on November 12th. She is teaching her piece titled Blessed and Thankful. She has re-designed it especially for our afternoon program. If you can come in person the paint is provided for this class. The surface is a 9 by 12 canvas but it can be painted on any surface that you already have. I can't wait to try her technique for those beautiful red roses.

When the pattern, including the supply lists, are available they will be posted on www.artroom2create.com. When you purchase the class on that website you then are able to download the instructions which include the supply list.

Looking forward to painting with everyone!

Dotty

WMDPG General Meeting Minutes - Sunday, May 7, 2023

On May 7, 2023 at 10:00 a.m., having been presented with a (very) “Big Brush” in lieu of a gavel, President Jacque Seastedt opened the May 23, 2023 Business Meeting by leading the Pledge of Allegiance. She welcomed all new members, both live at the Londonderry, NH Senior Center and on Zoom, and proceeded to list upcoming events: June 10, Linda O’ Connell, Memory Box; June 24, Jane Allen, Quickwood Santa project; July 16, Tracy Moreau; Arlene Linton, September; Rosemary West, November.

The Secretary’s Report had previously been published. Since no issues were raised at the meeting, it was voted after motion duly made and seconded to accept the report.

Suzi Franklin reported a total of 179 members and acknowledged Carolyn Swasey’s role in growing our membership.

Betty Vitale’s Treasurer’s report shows a bank balance of $27,989 as of April 28. A new CD will be opened with $10,000 of those funds when our name change is complete. She reported that our seminars have been profitable.

Sue Hodgkins provided website and newsletter updates. She has been using Constant Contact for newsletter distribution with better results than MailChimp. If you know you or someone else hasn’t received the newsletter, please let Sue know. Reminder, all newsletters are posted on our website. The deadline for August is July 30. Submissions such as tips are always welcome. Dotty Pullo took advantage of that reminder with a tip on using tracing paper to photo in a home printer – she suggests taping the tops of the tracing paper and regular printer paper together before inserting them in the paper tray.

Our next meeting is September 10.

Marilyn Moses spoke about the Memory Box donation program. WMDPG members paint round, heart-shaped or oval papier mâché boxes that Marilyn and Jacque donate to birthing centers to hold keepsakes for parents who have lost a baby at birth. Several beautiful boxes were on display at our meeting. Plain boxes were available for members to take home and return. If you aren’t a local member, you may mail your painted box to Marilyn or Jacque, or you may choose to donate it to a hospital near you. In May Jacque and Marilyn will deliver some boxes to Catholic Medical Center in Manchester, NH. We have several artists who have donated their designs and teaching skills with the expectation that the “RAK” projects will be donated.

Janice Fusco is updating the WMDPG Bylaws to reflect our change of status. The Executive Board is reviewing them; upon approval by the Board, the new Bylaws will be presented to the general membership for review and vote. They will then be submitted to the State of NH in our efforts to make the transition from chapter to independent guild.

Our NET Representative, Mary Frambach, reminded everyone NET registration is ongoing. White Mountain will be staffing the volunteer center on Thursday, Oct. 5 from 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Please let Mary know when your class schedule frees you to help. Please also contact Cheryl Barb, who will head the Class Display, and let her know when you can help with that. As of May 7, 350 people were registered. Additional rooms are being reserved at the nearby Hampton Inn.

Hospitality Chair Leanne Kelly addressed the subject of the annual raffle and interim incentive prizes. She now has a colored pencil set, a $50 Michael’s gift card and the promise of a placemat set painted by Kris Lafayette as well as a spring themed metal pocket by Shirley Cochis.

Clare Majorossy will donate a surface and pattern. Leanne herself has donated an amazing 16 x 20 canvas on which she painted a snowshoe scene by Wendy Fahey. Carolyn Swasey will donate a $45 gift certificate to ArtRoom2Create. WMDPG voted to donate a $50 gift certificate and Cindy Harrison will donate a $50 gift certificate to her Artful Webinars classes.

Leanne would like a Hospitality Co-Chair to assist her in 2024, particularly to help solicit prizes. It would be best if she knew what prizes we have at the outset of the year. Happily, she had no news to share about any members being ill but reminded everyone to let her know if a card should go out to someone.

Palette Pot Pourri participants were Dotty Pullo, Suzi Franklin, Janice Fusco, Shirley Cochis, Betty Vitale, Marilyn Ford and Kris Lafayette participating. Dotty displayed a grapevine wreath surrounding a winter country scene, decorated with woolen pine sprays. Janice showed us several projects she has created using a dot-painting technique. Both Dotti and Janice offered to teach workshops featuring these creations.

Janice Fusco shared some closing remarks. At 11:05 p.m., a motion to adjourn was made, seconded and accepted. Following the meeting, Chris Watson taught a class on painting a floral design on a canvas bag.

Respectfully submitted,
Susanna Duffy, Secretary

Memory Box Program

We hope everyone is having a wonderful summer, despite the unusual weather including extreme heat, excessive humidity and flooding rains. Perhaps some have used the rainy days to paint a memory box. We do have a very nice supply of boxes at this time and will be contacting hospitals to see if they are in need of more boxes, or even a few of a certain size that they like to offer to parents of a deceased newborn.

An 8 or 9 inch box, round, square, oval or heart shaped, seems to be the most commonly chosen, but occasionally parents prefer a slightly smaller one. Members have been finishing their boxes extremely well by painting all surfaces and sealing them, which protects them for the future. We thank you for doing this.

We have 2 more RAK'S this year. On Sept 16 there will be an Erika Joanne design taught by Stephanie Robinson. A memory box design will be taught by Tracey Moreau on Nov. 9. I am sure they will be very popular. A very special thanks to Sue Black for the organizing she has done this year scheduling artists for the RAKS. They are all wonderful designs and many members have enjoyed painting them.

Thank you!

Painting Retreat in Frayssinet, France

By Susanna Duffy

White Mountain Decorative Painters' Guild/Berkshire Brushes

Frayssinet-le-Gélat is a tiny village tucked away in Southwest France, a little over an hour drive from Toulouse. In May 2023 I was fortunate to travel there for a 10-day watercolor retreat at Le Vieux Couvent organized by painting instructors Fran Mittelstet and Carol Spohn. It was amazing! Here are a few highlights.

First impressions were of brilliant fields of poppies, medieval stone buildings and mountains. Close your eyes and imagine stepping into a painting by Monet or Van Gogh! In such beautiful surroundings, there was no shortage of painting inspiration. In our art studio, Fran and Carol patiently and expertly helped us (15 in all) to build skills and translate inspiration into personal works of art. And they made it great fun!

Le Vieux Couvent (meaning "the old convent"), our lodging, consisted of a cluster of 200-plus year-old vine covered buildings flanked by terraced gardens. The gardens were spectacular – bright poppies, herbs, trailing roses, water lilies, potted geraniums. Small café tables and chairs popped up everywhere along the paths for reading, painting or quiet time. We had fun learning to play pétanque, the French version of bocce. The rooms, each with a vase of flowers to welcome us upon arrival, were simple, perfectly in keeping with the ambience. Mine had whitewashed plaster walls, a tall lace curtained casement window overlooking stone steps, a single bed, a bureau and a small antique desk.

We were treated to almost-daily excursions to points of interest in the area – a prehistoric cave, some open-air markets (great shopping!), lunch at the restored medieval home of our driver Simon, a mountainside picnic, and more.

Oh yes, the picnics – what a perfect segue to describing the fabulous meals we indulged in! All fresh, locally sourced food, artfully served at long family style tables. With wine, of course (well, not at breakfast but both other meals and accompanying aperitifs after painting sessions). Croissants, freshly baked bread, local cheeses, lemon cake (my favorite), wonderful fresh salads, salmon, roast duck (a local specialty). And more...

Our experience ended with a festive studio exhibit of student paintings. It was so impressive to see them all displayed! The staff, who had worked all day producing appetizers for this event as well as the fabulous multi-course dinner that followed, were all present along with some of their family members.

Interested in an international painting experience? Fran Mittelstet and Carol Spohn will be teaching at NET this October. Seek them out if you'd like to hear more details of their future plans, or reach out using the contact information below. After meeting them in October 2022 and speaking to White Mountain friends Anne Wifholm and Donna Frost, both Mittelstet/Spohn retreat "grads," I was convinced this would be a memorable experience. And it certainly was!

NET News

NET will soon be here. I imagine you have registered and picked your classes already. Now it's time to pick your available times to volunteer for White Mountains assigned duties at NET. We are responsible for covering 2 areas. The Volunteer Room on Thursday from 7 AM- 6:30 PM and Class Display all week. Contact Mary Frambach at 603-496-2926 for Volunteer Room Coverage.

Cheryl Barb is in charge of Class Display this year and would like help covering specific times so that she can take a few classes. If you're available throughout the day to relieve for breakfast, lunch and supper that would also be very helpful. Times needed: Wednesday 4PM-8PM, Saturday 4PM-8PM and Sunday 8AM-noon. Contact Cheryl at cherab@comcast.net or phone 603-494-1959. Thank you for making this another great year at NET. See you soon

NET COOKBOOK

As you may have heard, NET is putting out a cookbook in celebration of its 25th Anniversary. There is an opportunity to pre-order the book and Jacque Seastedt is willing to pick up books for those who will not be going to NET. There will be recipes for the kitchen and the paint room so don't miss out!!! You will also be able to buy the book at NET.

To pre-order:

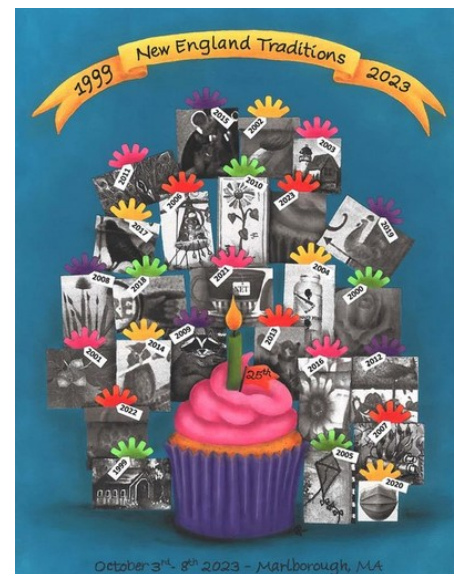

Please email Lynn Barbadora at lbarbadora@yahoo.com to reserve your copies for pick-up at NET 2023.

NET or Bust!

Have you:

1. Registered?
2. Made your hotel reservations?
3. Signed up to volunteer at NET?
4. Checked the supply list and bought/ordered what you need?

See you there!

A Message from our Annual Raffle Chair

Hello Members,

Hope everyone is enjoying the summer months. The winner of the paintbrush box, that would make a nice 2024 incentive prize painted up hint hint LOL, is Marilyn Ford of Stoneham, MA. No pressure on painting the box Marilyn. Sorry but I think I will skip an incentive prize for August, working on my son's wedding and busy as can be. Also, very excited, and can't think of much else. I really do appreciate the ticket sales each month, so thank you very much you know who you are! I do have an amazing packet with accessories for September. If I recall correctly it was donated by Chris Watson thank you very much Chris. It is a Brenda Stewart Design. You won't want to miss out on this one so send those tickets in Aug. and September and you'll have your chance.

Thank you and take care,
Leeanne Kelly
