Sue's Presidential Scribbles...

Happy Winter,

I don't know about all of you but I'm very happy that this has been a light snow shoveling type of winter. I hope I haven't just jinxed us!

We have an exciting line up of activities for this year. Starting in March we have our first ever auction, that has been made possible by the generous donations by former members Ginny Dandreta and Jill Greene. I have seen pictures of the items, and there are quite a few things that I want to bid on. I hope it's a pay week! Please see photos elsewhere in the newsletter of some of the items. Plan to bid high and bid often.

We also have a couple of awesome workshops on the horizon for this summer. These are first come first serve with limited spaces available so don't wait too long before registering. Look for Suzi Franklin's colored pencil owl and Janice Tomlin's acrylic Santa registration pages in this newsletter.

In September we have none other than Rosemary West coming to town. Her designs are beautiful, and it's not often that we see her in this area. Don't miss out.

One of my goals for this year is to pick your brains for suggestions that you might like to see our guild do. Do you have some new ideas? Would you like to see changes to our meetings? Any programs that you would like us to investigate? Maybe you've heard of a fun activity or fundraiser that we should think about. We all love painting, being together and having fun together. How can we do more of that or enhance what we already do? Give this some thought and give us your ideas.

Lastly, we ask that you please save your brown bags until the May meeting. Due to the auction, we think that it might be best if we save our money to spend on that and not have the brown bag raffle at this meeting. See you all in a few weeks.

Happy Painting,
Sue

News from our Vice President ...

Dear Painters,

We are off to a super year. Our January 13th meeting was well attended and many stayed to create new clipboards!

Thank you to Donna Frost for teaching pastels to our group.

January also brought Arlene Linton to teach a candle plate and coasters. Thank you to Sue Hodgkins and Cindy Harrison, despite inclement weather, they made our weekend special.

Now we look forward to our March meeting. There will be an auction immediately following our business meeting: many beautiful wood surfaces, as well as a projector, are available for bids.

Looking forward to May and there has been a change in our schedule. We will be holding information stations.

Our September program will be taught by Janice Tomlin.

We will use colored pencil to create a beautiful holly-berry picture.

In November Dotty Pullo will show us how to make a lovely poinsettia card.

Please sign up for our upcoming workshops. June 8th is Suzi Franklin's saw whet owl and Janice Tomlin's Peppermint Santa is on July 27th. Registration forms and pictures have been posted on-line and are in this newsletter.

Thank you to Carolyn Swasey! Carolyn has extraordinary skills besides publicity, you have seen our tuffet. We hope to sell lots of chances. Suzi Franklin painted the amazing flowers! Thanks, Suzi, you do so much!

And of course this September 2019 Rosemary West will be our featured artist at our Londonderry seminar. Thank you to Dotty Pullo who has been busy organizing that seminar for us. Information to sign up is posted in this newsletter.

Please let me know if you would like to see something special in 2020. I am busy planning programs. At this time we have Lynn Andrews returning in September of 2020. So if you have any suggestions, please let me know!

Sincerely,

Peggy Daly

New Year brings a new board for 2019...

Directions...

Directions to: Country Inn & Suites,
250 So. River Road, Bedford NH

From points North, take Rte 3 South/Everett Turnpike, take Bedford Exit. Take a right on Rte 3 and follow this south until you pass IHOP and Canoe, go over the highway, and the hotel is on the hill on the right.

From points South, take Rte 3 North/Everett Turnpike, get off at the Airport exit before the toll booth, Rte 3 Merrimack. Go North on old Rte 3 toward Bedford. The hotel is 2 miles on the left. Get into the left lane just after the set of lights (junction of Animal Hospital/Neurospine Center/Hampton Inn).

From points East, take Rte 101 West 293, get off at the Bedford Exit bringing you to South River Road/Rte 3. Take a Right and follow that until you pass IHOP & Canoe, go over the highway and the hotel is on the right on the hill.

2019 Raffle News...

One of the raffle prizes, the tuffet has been finished and an email blast was distributed that had a picture and raffle tickets attached. Please start selling tickets. The quilt will also be unveiled at the March meeting. Sometimes competition is good. The guild member that sells the most tickets will receive a prize.

ANNUAL EGG SWAP

It seems like we just had our Ornament exchange, and now it is time for the Egg swap. Our march meeting is coming soon so don't forget to paint an egg for the swap. Wood, paper mâché, or plaster, would be great surfaces to decorate. Bring one, get one, is our usual procedure. I will put them in the brown lunch bags and we will all get an egg painted by a fellow White Mountaineer! If you want to share your talent with the families at David's House, please bring an extra painted egg for them.

January 2019 Centerpieces -

Thanks to Sue Duffy for the adorable Snow people centerpieces that graced the tables at the January meeting. What a creative use of a box of junky wood snowmen! Sue, you have transformed ugly into cute with your paintbrush and creativity.

MARKET DAYS CONCORD JUNE 20, 21, 22, .:

Keep one, two, or all three dates open on your calendar. The Guild, our Guild, has an opportunity to showcase the "Joy of decorative Painting" to the public during Concord's Market Days. This festival can be a great fundraiser for our Guild. With the hand painted Tuffet, handmade Beautiful Quilt on display we can sell raffle tickets to the public and fundraise for our Guild. We can boost ticket sales by showing the public our 2019 raffle prizes, and collecting funds from people other than ourselves. This will help our bottom line AND show others WHAT we do, and HOW they can be involved in CREATNG lovely functional pieces.

Another Auction Sneak Peek!

Painters Tip...

Looking for an alternate for the Dry-It Boards that are no longer manufactured. There is a lot of buzz on Facebook about these Silicone Mats, but fellow painters have only found them in thrift type stores. I did some research and found that they are available on Amazon.com in red or green. They are called raised backing sheets and measure 15.5 X 10 7/8".

Message from Sue Duffy...

Sue Duffy is on her way to recovery and she sent me a short email—"I am on the road to recovery here, having graduated from a walker to a cane and abandoned my brace. A word of advice : don't ever fall on your knee cap! Looking forward to our next meeting."

Chapter member announcement—

Pleased to announce, our very own Janice Tomlin has been published. For those that know Janice, she is fond of mice. She drew this colored piece and it has been published in Ann Kulberg's annual publication called. "Hidden Treasures."

Have you volunteered lately to help our GUILD?

Memory Boxes...

Please continue to support the Memory Box program. Thank you to those members who have shared their talent and painted a box for donation to a local hospital. Boxes are available for you to pick up at the next meeting. If you have any questions, please contact Marilyn or Jacque.

Due to lack of interest the Secret Pals program has been cancelled for 2019. If there is interest, we will try again in 2020.

Janice posing like Vanna from 'Wheel of Fortune.' One of the lucky people to take a meeting centerpiece home. We are looking for 2020 volunteers to paint a centerpiece for meeting.

Recipe from Marilyn Moses...

Coffee Toffee Bars -

Cream 1 cup soft butter. Add 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar, creaming well. Blend in: 1 teaspoon. almond extract, and 1 Tablespoon instant coffee, Mix together: 2 cups sifted flour, 1/2 tea- spoon. baking powder,, and 1/4 teaspoon. salt.

Add to creamed mixture and blend. It will be a stiff dough.

Stir in 1 cup semi sweet chocolate morsels and 1/2 cup blanched almonds.

Press into a well-greased 15x10" jelly roll pan. This will take some time to get the dough spread onto the entire pan.

Bake at 350 degrees for 20 min. Check at 15 to 18 minutes to be sure it doesn't be- come too brown due to oven temperature varia- tions. Glaze while warm.

Almond glaze: Combine 1 Tablespoon but- ter, 3/4 cup sifted conf. sugar and 1/8 tea- spoon almond extract. Add 1 to 2 T. milk until of spreading consistency.

WMDPG General Meeting Minutes - Sunday, January 13, 2019

.President, D. Frost opened the meeting at the Country Inn in Bedford, NH at 10 AM with the Pledge of Allegiance. Members were welcomed. No guests or new members were in attendance.

OLD BUSINESS

Secretary, M. Moses. The minutes of the November 2018 general meeting had been included in the last newsletter. No additions or corrections were given by the members. A motion to accept the minutes of the November 2018 meeting was given by J. Fusco and seconded by S. Hodgkins and all were in favor. The minutes will be filed as accepted.

Acting Treasurer, D. Frost. The report had been included in the newsletter. Several topics of the 2018 and 2019 budget were explained and discussed. There will be a short transition of the treasury to the new treasurer of 2019, D. Pullo. She is familiarizing herself with the Quicken program. A motion to accept the budget was given by C. Swasey and seconded by P. Daly. All were in favor and the report will be filed as accepted.

NEW BUSINESS

Membership, J. Seastedt. 23 members were present for the meeting, 17 for lunch and 14 for the afternoon program. Please remember to send her the form for attending the meeting as soon as possible, especially if you are planning to stay for lunch and the afternoon program.

Newsletter Editor, Carolyn Swasey. The deadline for the next newsletter is February 9. Please be prompt in sending in reports, and necessary information. Hints for painting or penciling and recipes are well appreciated.

Seminars, S. Hodgkins. The seminar with Arlene Linton at the Country Inn, on January 19 and 20 has openings. Arlene is supplying paint. The candle plate is approximately 5.5 inches. She will be flying in on Friday. Please be aware of possible snow and icy roads and plan accordingly. The hotel room fee to stay overnight is $100, which includes breakfast. L. Conners will be providing lunch with assistance from members. Ham, macaroni/cheese and salad will be served for a fee of $10. Additions of morning snacks and desserts are certainly welcome. For the Sunday class, members will plan to bring a lunch or food can be ordered.

D. Pullo: The seminar on September 14 and 15 with Rosemary West will be held at the Londonderry Senior Citizen Center. 4 photos of projects have been established and those members planning on attending voted today on their two favorites.

Workshops, P. Daly. S. Franklin's colored pencil workshop will be Saturday, June 8, at her home in Wells, Maine. She will be teaching an owl project. Members reminisced about the great day last year with the beach close by and the fabulous restaurant they attended for a seafood lunch.

J. Tomlin's workshop for the Prudy Vannier Christmas project in acrylics will be at her studio in Seabrook, NH. The date was discussed and a tentative day is Saturday, July 27. Painters will bring their own surface. More information will follow.

Afternoon Programs: An auction of wood surfaces and painting supplies, plus information stations will be held at our March meeting. J. Tomlin will teach a holly leaf colored pencil project for the September meeting.

NET: C. Swasey and L. Conners are the NET representatives for 2019. Our job this year is Class Sales at Registration. Further information on the details will follow. Members will be asked to volunteer to help with this important job. The Mayflower Chapter has joined NET for the first time.

A member was needed to sell tickets for the annual raffle. D. Courville volunteered for this position.

Installation of officers and board members. D. Frost reviewed the names of the new elected officers and presidential appointments before the 2019 installation was held. All candidates agreed to their upcoming positions. C. Lafayette officiated at the installation. The officers and board members were thanked for their contributions to our guild.

Tole Gate, L. Kelly. $1. was collected from each member not wearing a name badge.

Memory Boxes: J. Seastedt and M. Moses. A few more boxes are available for members to paint. Hospitals will be called to see which ones are in need of boxes as we have enough painted now to be donated. Thanks to all who paint these important boxes.

C. Lafayette talked about Concord Market Days held in late June. We will have a table at this event promoting decorative painting and our guild. Volunteers will be asked to be at the table. "Make and take" paintings will be offered. The 2020 raffle could be displayed. A list of local teachers in NH will be available. Further discussions will be held on this topic.

C. Lafayette told members about attending the funeral of J. Bognore's husband. It was well attended with a ceremony in the church. Jeni was appreciative of having a guild member attend.

Chapter Energizer, C. Lafayette. The "Atta Girl" for last November was C. Barb. She was recognized for her volunteer hours at NET. P. Daly was "Atta Girl" for this meeting for accepting the Vice President position. A gift was given to D. Frost, the outgoing President, for her tremendous work this past year.

Secret Pal, P. Daly. Applications for the Secret Pal program were due at this meeting. She had received 2 and reminded members to sign up if they wish to join this year.

David's House, L. Conners. She had received a note from David's House saying how much they appreciated the donations, the Christmas ornaments and the Easter eggs.

Centerpieces, C. Lafayette. The cute snowman centerpieces were designed and painted by S. Duffy. Thanks were given for the appropriate design for our winter meeting. S. Duffy is in a rehab facility as she fractured her foot.

Annual Raffle. A discussion was held concerning the annual raffle and how it can bring in more money for the guild. It will be taken to the Concord Market Days. The possibility of Facebook sales of raffle tickets will be explored. The raffle produces a great deal of work for the income it produces, but it will continue as planned for now. J. Fusco volunteered to print raffle tickets.

J. Seastedt spoke about the large amount of wood pieces, patterns and supplies that will be available from the donation of Jill Greene, for the auction at the March meeting. She has a list and photographs available with the 51 items. It will be a fun and productive auction. She has chosen items to be used as 2018 Annual Raffle prizes for tickets sold at all general meetings. J. Tomlin also generously donated a colored pencil Santa portrait as an additional prize which was won by D. Courville.

WMDPG General Meeting Minutes continued - Sunday, Nov. 11th

The bag raffle was held with several boxes and bags raffled to members.

Palette Potpourri. L. Kelly. Members' fabulous paintings and colored pencil projects were displayed for all to admire. D. Fortin was the winner of the drawing.

C. Swasey spoke about the back packs which members are volunteering to paint for children who are being removed from their homes to live at foster homes. Back packs were passed out to members. A discussion was held on possible preparation on the canvas. Members may paint their back packs at home or join in a paint-in at Fran Gelin's home, on Thursday, January 24.

The 2019 Annual Raffle was held for the beautiful clock, painted by J. Tomlin. The winner was Margie Rowe. The clock was given to L. Conners to deliver to Margie's family. An additional $174 in tickets were sold at the meeting.

A motion to adjourn the meeting was given by S. Franklin and seconded by J. Fusco. L. Conners and her assistants served a nice soup and salad lunch after which D. Frost taught a fun chalk and acrylic project on the back of a clipboard.

Yours truly,

Marilyn Moses

WMDPG Secretary

Arlene Linton Day one seminar pictures...

The ladies who attended the Arlene Linton Seminar had a great time. Linda Conners lunch was yummy as well, and folks asked for her Mac & Cheese recipe. The inclement weather on Sunday, did not stop anything. Thanks to Cindy Harrison and her tech savvy abilities. It was broadcast over the web and the session was interactive. I checked with a few, and they shared Sunday was wonderful as well.

2018 Raffle—featured artist...

Thank you very much Janice Tomlin for not only painting the beautiful Caithness clock but for also donating your colored pencil Santa. You can see the excitement on Debbie's face that she was a happy winner.

 WMDPG: A Chapter of Distinction
 Since Melanie Knox and I will be representing our chapter at SDP's Annual Conference in Wichita, our chapter qualifies as a Chapter of Distinction. We will receive a special patch designed by the 2019 Artist of Distinction to put on our banner. The Artist of Distinction will be announced by the SDP Museum Foundation Board of Directors on March 15, 2019. This is a brand new event. Also, each member of our chapter will receive a free ePacket designed by the Artist of Distinction. I have already checked about our members who don't have computers and it is okay for someone else to print a copy of the ePacket for them. Melanie and I have attended several Chapter Gatherings in the past and have enjoyed sharing ideas, painting a swap and hearing about new products. Each year is different. We appreciate sharing the chapter stipend this year and will report back.

Your 2019 SDP Membership card will be arriving in your Spring Issue of the Decorative Painter.
Paint for the Children is this year's Chapters Gathering project. Each person attending is asked to paint a backpack for child who are in the foster care system. Often times, children are rescued from horrific situations with whatever can be stuffed into a garbage bag. This project is to provide backpacks they can use instead. Thanks to Carolyn Swasey who contacted EnviroTote of New Hampshire, the company donated 17 backpacks for our chapter to paint. Two backpacks are going to Wichita but the rest will stay in NH to be donated to a similar program thanks to Melanie Knox. More thanks go to Fran Gelinas who hosted a painting party for members to paint backpacks. Several also went home with members who volunteered at our January meeting. This project will be added to our list of 2019 service projects that help qualify us for the Annual Chapter Achievement Award.

SDP recommends we get our Chapter involved. There are Foster Children everywhere.

Melanie Know has contacted our local DSHS and her son works for this organization. He has agreed to be our liaison to ensure the backpacks are given to children of all ages, when they are being removed from their homes.. We will be painting a total of 17 natural canvas backpacks that were donated by a local female owned business in Londonderry NH.– thank you Nancy. The business is called Enviro-Tote and to read more about the history of this company, check out their 'about us' page: <https://enviro-tote.com/about-us>.

Fran Gelinas hosted a paint in at her studio. Although the weather did not cooperate three painters ventured
