Presidential Ramblings

For me, this year flew by and before we know it, the new year will be here and I will pass the baton as President over to Janice Fusco. With humor, I have to say I am not done yet. We still have several painting programs to share with the membership. By the time the newsletter is published, we will have enjoyed programs taught by some very talented artists. Maxine Thomas had a seminar where she taught her design, 'Getting Ready for Christmas' on September 25th to a sold-out classroom of 50 students. Sonja Richardson's seminar, 'Bats and Cats' on October 1st was also sold out and 40 painters signed up. Thank you, Sonja, for teaching this design and offering an all-inclusive fee that included the kit being mailed to the students' homes. Lynne Andrews has donated her time, which has allowed us to offer a renewal bonus program on October 17th with a reduced kit price that includes shipping. Depending on the timing for this newsletter publication, she will or will not have taught her 'Harriet Potter' design.

When I reflect back, I have to say our guild is truly blessed. There have been so many designers and teachers that responded and said YES when approached to teach White Mountain members online via Zoom. We were lucky and we were successful in getting a published artist, Maria Grimanis, to design two pieces exclusively for her RAK and Memory box program. On September 11th, she taught her 'Surrounded by Angels' design. Maria shared a sad but heartwarming story with the participants about how her design came to life. When you see her, please ask her, 'how she is doing on designing the Angel ornament packet?'

Now it's time to discuss the remaining programs for 2021.

Sunday, November 7th from 1:00 to 5:00PM EST

- Jane Allen has come to the rescue and will be teaching a wood embellished with QuikWood ornament. The fee includes access to the Zoom room, the recording and the surface, inclusive of shipping to your home.

Sunday, November 14th – General Meeting Afternoon Program. Suzi Franklin will be teaching a holiday ornament design. More information to follow.

Saturday, November 20th from Noon to 5:00PM EST -

Brenda Stewart will be teaching a memory box design. A direct email blast will be sent out with additional details.

Thursday, November

18th from 6:30 to 8:30PM EST - Ruth Rodrigues will be teaching a memory box piece. She has modified a Rosemary West design and Rosemary has given her blessing to Ruth to teach this project. Thank you to both Ruth and Rosemary for your support.

Some cavalierly say they are grateful, but in my case, I would like to be specific. To the teachers who have volunteered to teach our members throughout the year, you should know your selfless acts have placed a smile on many painters' faces. You all have been responsible for keeping our members, near and far, painting and this is no easy task. Members, please continue to support these designers who have donated their time to make our Random Acts of Kindness and Memory Box programs such a success: Jane Allen, Lynne Andrews, Deb Antonick, (continued on page 3)

The deadline for the next issue of
Tole it to the Mountains is
December 4, 2021

The Newsletter is published 5 times a year:
Feb, April, August, October and December

Also, I would like to say thank you to Linda Kapp, Sherill Martens, Wendy Warner, Sue Hodgkins and Donna Frost who have volunteered to monitor Zoom classes throughout the year. You have made the responsibility of hosting classes easier. Stay tuned. Please consider renewing your membership for 2022. We have a lot of great programs planned for next year.

Take care,
Carolyn

Studio Footnotes with Janice

We can make money, make a meal, make art...we can make all sorts of things except the one thing we all need more of; TIME. Boy, do I wish I could create more time to do the things I want to do and not the things I have to do. We all have the 'have to do list' – work, taking care of the kids, laundry, cooking, grocery shopping – the list goes on and on. So, because of the "have to do's", my contribution to this newsletter will be short and very late in submitting it to our editor.

Just back from NET! What a great pleasure to be surrounded by fellow painters and to be among people who share our passion for art. I took seven classes and am worn out. Learned new techniques, bought some stuff I didn't need but wanted, saw a lot of familiar faces and fellow members. Thank you to all the volunteers and the group of people that organize this great event!

WMDPG is still in need of a Vice President nominee. Please consider volunteering for this position. We have a great group of members and we need a small amount of your valuable time to keep our Guild moving forward.

Carolyn has an exciting group of teachers lined up, updates on who, when and where will follow in the coming months.

Hope to 'see' everyone soon!
Happy Painting
Janice Fusco

Dear WMDPG Members,

White Mountain Decorative Painting Guild needs to fill the position of Vice President/President Elect for 2022.

Do you have some time to volunteer? Do you want our Guild to continue to provide a sense of community and friendship to fellow decorative painters? We rely on our membership to take on the officer's positions, to donate their time and talent to continue the purpose of our Guild. The commitment of time is not excessive to hold this position and we have a great support system in place to help you along the way. Due to the obligations of this position, it is required that the member must be close to White Mountain's home base of New Hampshire.

I am asking that you please consider putting your name forward to take on this very important office of Vice President/President Elect for WMDPG.

Call me (603-540-5933) or email (jagfusco@comcast.net) me with any questions.

Remember – It takes ALL of US to make White Mountain Decorative Painting Guild successful!

Thank You,
Janice Fusco

2022 Officers – We still need someone local to serve as the VP. Board Members at Large (3 needed – These can be remote or local) include Wendy Warner, Larry Provenchure, Shirley Cochise.

Memory box and RAK organizer of teachers-Arlene Hilmer from Indiana (Members from remote areas will donate projects within their local area if they wish.)

2022 Suggestions for potential seminar teachers suggested at this meeting: Paulette DeGesare, Kathy George, Jane Allen, Elizabeth Stull, Delores Mishima, Tracy Moreau, Sandy Scales, Debbie Hoelzel, Lana Privatera. If anyone wants to suggest another potential teacher, please contact Janice Fusco.

Treasurer's Report – This was sent out before the meeting and was accepted as written. It will be placed on file.

Membership Report – 60 members have registered for 2022 so far. Three of these are new.

Newsletter – The next newsletter deadline is October 3. Please send entries earlier if possible. Our next general meeting will be October 14.

Our Facebook presence has been good for us and has increased membership awareness.

No one has volunteered to teach Shara Reiner's Peggy Harris' SDP Boo Bunnies project for September. Dotty Pullo volunteered to teach the December SDP Paint In which is Shara Reiner's Snow Buddies. Donna can help and Dottie Pullo will teach via zoom. Members requested that it be taught either on a Monday or Tuesday.

Website – Sue Hodgkins says the new website is close to being ready. The design and commentary are done. We are using WIX for this. They are still working on pay pal or another service so we can accept charges on the site if necessary. Venmo does not charge for this type of service but some services like this might be prone to scammers. We will also have a fillable form for membership. Other connections will be included as well. Right now, with our old website, Donna Frost is the only one who knows how to make changes.

Memory Boxes – 10 were sent to Monadnock in Peterborough. We made contact with Frisbee in Rochester. We also tried Portsmouth, Manchester, Exeter, CMC in Elliot, St. Joseph's in Nashua, and Concord. Not all were interested. Maria Grimanis taught a design called "Surrounded by Angels."

NET – Larry still needs help at Teacher Display: Thursday 12-3, Friday 8-10 AM, and Saturday 6-7 PM.

Leeanne presented today's Palette Potpourri. The gift for this drawing will be postponed for a little while. Patterns make nice gifts because they are also easy to mail if necessary. Raffle – weekly, 3 or 4 come in. Tickets are on our website and in each newsletter or Leeanne has a copy she can send out. The raffle prizes will be drawn in November.

Member Question: Can membership money and Raffle money be sent to the same address?

Answer: Yes, but these should be in separate checks, please. A motion to close meeting was made by Shirley Cochise and seconded by Janice Fusco.

Respectfully Submitted,
Suzi Franklin, Secretary WMDPG

The September General Meeting Palette Potpourri winner was Sandra Phillips and Sandra has won a project packet of watercolor Christmas cards I taught for an afternoon class. Congratulations.

Annual Raffle 2021—Drawing November 14, 2021

Thanks to generous members we have three gorgeous 2021 raffle prizes. The dark country red cabinet to the left was painted by Fran Gelinas featuring Maxine Thomas designs.

Leeanne Kelly is hard at work painting a large Bentwood box with a Maxine Thomas Christmas design. Leeanne wants people to know the box pictured is Maxine's own box not hers. But we know when Leeanne finishes it will be just as beautiful.

Deb Corville is also hard at work painting the festive tray that will be a joy to display and use. The smaller photo shows the Gail Anderson design she is using.

Mail checks and raffle tickets to:
Leeanne Kelly, 55 Tampa St., Nashua, NH 03064
