Presidential Chit Chat

Season's Greetings to you all!

2023 has breezed by in a whirl of activities and changes! This time last year, we were deciding to break away from SDP and now we have just about completed the changes needed to be on our own, White Mountain Decorative Painters' Guild! We have been working with the State of NH regulations, have acquired our own insurance, made changes to the By Laws and Standing Rules and voted to accept those changes. Thank you to all those who have been working to achieve this accomplishment. How often do I think..."It takes a village!"

We have enjoyed opportunities to paint with so many wonderful artists this year! At our meetings, we've enjoyed painting with Lynne Andrews, Dotty Pullo, Chris Watson, Arlene Linton, and Rosemary West- quite a line-up. The seminars have brought us Maxine Thomas, Paulette DeGesare, Maureen Baker, Tracy Moreau, Jane Allen, Sandy McTier, Amy Mogish, Dotty Pullo, and Karen Brouwer. Wow! And our RAKs! Nancy Scott, Linda O'Connell, Laurie Webber, Stephanie Robinson, and Tracy Moreau! I apologize if I missed anyone. Thank you to Carolyn Swasey, Dotty Pullo, and Sue Black who have made these opportunities available to us. Awesome planning! None of these classes would be possible without our technology geniuses – Carolyn Swasey, Dotty Pullo, Sue Hodgkins, Janice Fusco, and others who assist during a class. Looking ahead to 2024, we would always love to hear who you would like us to try to schedule for a seminar, meeting, or RAK.

Thank you also to those who worked to bring NET to us this year. Artists, organizers, volunteers, painters, and trade show exhibitors...it all goes together to bring us a great time! I'm already looking forward to next year. If you didn't get your NET cookbook already, they should be available again in January. Wonderful recipes from your fellow painters and artists.

The members of White Mountain, living near or far, thank you for being a member of our village. I hope you all have taken advantage of what has been offered and know that we appreciate your participation in White Mountain.

Being your president this year has been an honor. Thank you for allowing me to fill this role. Thank you to the officers and board for your help and support. Thank you very much to our officers and board, Carolyn Swasey, Dotty Pullo, Sue Hodgkins, Sue Duffy, Betty Vitale, Suzi Franklin, Marilyn Moses, Janice Fusco, Leeanne Kelly, Mary Frambach, and Shirley Cochis for all you have done to make this a great year. The purpose of White Mountain as stated in the By Laws is to "stimulate interest in, and appreciation for, the art and history of Tole/Decorative Painting in all its forms and to provide its members information and activities related to Tole/Decorative Painting and Decorative art." You have all used your talents to fulfill this purpose. Thank you! I can't wait to see what next year brings! I'm looking forward to seeing you all at a meeting or a painting seminar.

Wishing you all a Happy New Year!

Jacque Seastedt, President

Co-VP Chronicles

Hello members,
I hope you enjoyed the December Holidays, and you were able to spend some quality time with friends and family. I also hope you were able to relax and get some painting done. I have made a promise to myself and my goal for December and throughout 2024 is to complete one challenging project every month. On my table right now is a Heidi England design that was modified by Bobbie Takashima. It was a Zoom UFO. Next up, who knows. Perhaps I should put 12 project names on a spinning wheel and have that select my next target.

As the Co-VP re-elected along with Dotty Pullo, I am tasked to arrange Zoom classes in 2024. I need your input, please email me at wmdpccarolyn@outlook.com to make teacher recommendations. So far, I have contacted Jamie Mills Price and Paulette DiGesare. Stay tuned to hear more once the dates and projects are confirmed. The guild has been very active in offering classes and our objective is to keep our members painting.

We lost some money on several of our Zoom seminars, so we are forced to make some changes. We will not offer a Zoom class when we have an afternoon program scheduled after the business meeting. As a result, there will be no Zoom seminars scheduled in: January, March, May, September, or November. Additionally, if we have a RAK program planned, we will not compete with them. Thank you, Sue Black, for arranging these free programs in 2023 and thus far she has one confirmed program for March 6th. Get ready members to get your brushes dancing to create some memory boxes.

We also need to get a jump start on painting ornaments for the two charitable organizations we support: David's House and NH Veterans. It was slow going this year because we cried out for help too late in the year. We have so many talented members. Would someone be willing to volunteer to lead a class to paint ornaments. I will offer my Zoom services to monitor the class. Would you consider painting one and donating the other?

Best regards,
Carolyn
WMDPG Co-VP

Tips & Tricks

Get a Staedtler Combo Circle Template if you have trouble making perfect circles on your project. It contains traceable circle openings in sizes ranging from $1/16^{\text{th}}$ of an inch to $2 \frac{1}{4}$ inches. It's made of heavy enough plastic to use as a stencil, or you can just trace the appropriate circle size onto your project. Most craft stores or office supply stores such as Staples carry these with the drafting supplies. They cost just under \$10.

A classmate at NET used a disposable shower cap to cover her palette during lunch break. These inexpensive items are sold at (wait for it...) Dollar Stores in packs of 8 or 10. I thought it was a genius idea! There was one less shower cap in the hotel bathroom after I checked out!

WMDPG General Meeting Minutes - Sunday, November 12, 2023

Business Meeting

President Jacque Seastedt convened the November 12, 2023 Business Meeting of White Mountain Decorative Painters' Guild at 10:00 a.m. at the Londonderry, NH Senior Center.

Following the Pledge of Allegiance and Jacque welcoming to those attending, Carolyn Swasey addressed 2023 seminars. Attendance at seminars has been sparse. There will be fewer RAK offerings in 2024 for this reason. Carolyn needs feedback on preferred teachers.

Dotty Pullo also emphasized the importance of member participation in teacher selection. She has scheduled the following events for 2024: January (probably Zoom only), Cindy Harrison, New Zealand red butterfly; March; Janice Fusco, dotted mandala; May, Nancy Scott, project TBD. The next newsletter will list special tools needed for the mandala.

Sue Duffy asked for a vote to accept the previous Business Meeting minutes published in the recent newsletter. A motion was made and seconded. The minutes were accepted as published.

Betty Vitale distributed her Treasurer's report, which shows a current balance of $29,845 with more funds expected before year end. It reflects some losses due to poorly attended seminars. Once the Bylaws have been accepted, Betty will change banks. Citizens does not work with Quick-en, Betty's software, and is not responsive to her requests for assistance. There was question about a line item marked "split" which was a lump deposit of funds originating from two separate events. In the future the deposits will be broken out separately to avoid this confusion.

Suzi Franklin reports a year- end total membership of 187 and 57 members registered thus far for 2024. She reminded everyone to please email her to register for in-person meetings! This registration is separate from workshop registration, which goes through ArtRoom2Create.

Sue Hodgkins spoke next. December 3 is her newsletter deadline. She'd like some painting hints to publish.

Mary Frambach gave a detailed report of the NET wrap-up meeting she attended. She thanked all volunteers , particularly Clare Majorossy. Move-in was smooth. In 2024 WMDPG will again staff the class project display, headed by Cheryl Barb. A problem this year was teachers failing to return their class samples at the end of the day for display. Volunteers for project display should also be sure to get cell phone numbers of NET teachers. There were 23 booths in the exhibit hall although two cancelled. No more rolling carts in the trade show, parking for carts will be provided next year. There were 196 buyers each day, down slightly from last year. Some vendors broke down early, which will not occur next year – a penalty will result. There may be some changes to game night. 135 catalogs were sold, $280 in ads were sold and the cookbook has generated 131 sales so far, with 75 unsold copies remaining. Registration hours will be expanded during the week but shortened on Saturday in 2024. Glitter clean-up was an issue in classrooms. Classroom doors must open 30 minutes before the start of class (please note if you're teaching), otherwise, halls are congested and there isn't enough set-up time. 1950 class seats were sold as well as 59 pop-up class spots. Classes will be capped two weeks before NET begins. Officers for 2024 are Chris Beckman, Gloria Greaves and Cheryl Barb. Bylaws will be addressed next year. Project submissions for 2024 are due by January 27 and must be emailed. February 3 is the deadline for submitting guild rep names to Dorey Joy. On Thursday, WMDPG will staff the volunteer room. Profits to WMDPG for the 2023 convention will be $1500 per guild with a possibility of another $400 once all bills are paid. In January we will send in $250 to NET along with our signed contract. Mary will check with the hotel concerning some items lost at the convention. There were 45 participating artists this year. The hotel room rate will remain the same in 2024. At a drawing held at the wrap-up meeting, the greeting cards made by Rocky Rockwell (the 2023 Convention Artist) were prizes.

The next agenda item was ratifying the revised Bylaws and Standing Rules of White Mountain. These documents had been circulated previously to all members via email and published in the newsletter. A quorum was present. Jacque solicited questions from members prior to the vote; none were raised. Kris Lafayette moved to accept the Bylaws and Rules, which was seconded. Nine Zoom members and 20 live members voted in the affirmative, with nobody opposed. Happily, therefore, the changes were approved unanimously and our guild can move forward as an independent entity.

Next was election of 2024 officers. Again, candidates' names had been published in the newsletter for consideration prior to voting. There were no nominations from the floor. Eleven Zoom and 20 live attendees live voted for the following slate of officers:

|----------------------|-----------------------------|
| President | Janice Fusco |
| Co Vice Presidents | Dotty Pullo, Carolyn Swasey |
| Treasurer | Betty Vitale |
| Secretary | Suzi Franklin |
| Membership Secretary | Susanna Duffy |
| Newsletter | Sue Hodgkins |

Directors will be Mary Frambach, Leanne Kelley and Sue Black.

Leanne Kelley conducted Tole Gate and Palette Potpourri. There were lots of participants in Palette Potpourri. She then drew winners of the Annual Raffle for 2023, after reporting raffle income of about $400 (excluding income from the current meeting). Linnea Rideout, Sandy Phillips, Kathy Tanguay and Terry Silva all won donated prizes. Some donations already promised for 2024 include a pattern and surface from Chris Watson, a mandala from Janice Fusco and a gift certificate from ArtRoom2Create.

Tricia Joiner displayed a project she plans to teach at the Chattanooga, TN June 2024 convention. She proudly announced her very talented teenage granddaughter will assist with some convention pop-up events. Tricia is donating a beautiful hand-painted table to the 2024 raffle. Since its size and weight preclude economical shipping, it would be appropriate for a lucky local member to win.

Jacque Seastedt and others produced a lavish brunch for the meeting to be enjoyed prior to the Rosemary West workshop. As there was no further business to be discussed, it was unanimously voted to adjourn at 11:30.

Respectfully submitted,
Susanna Duffy, Secretary

Memory Box Program

Thank you as always for the fabulous memory boxes. We had a request for boxes for Wentworth Hospital in Dover, NH recently. The women who viewed them in the Woman's and Children's ward of the hospital were very happy to see them, exclaiming over the beautiful paintings. The coordinator who was not able to come to see them at that time, as she was assisting with a delivery, called the next day to thank us and the guild members. She added that she had offered one to a patient that same day, who was very appreciative. It was very sad to hear this but reminded us how important our contribution is.

We hope you had a wonderful Christmas and have a happy and healthy New Year

Thank you!

Holiday Brunch!!

It was such a treat to have the Brunch at the November meeting! Many thanks to Jacque Seastedt and Marilyn Moses and their merry band of elves who cooked and donated all the delicious goodies. I'm sorry I don't know who you all are so that I could list you! I for one, ate my fill and went back for more! It made the morning that much more festive!

Look for recipes for some of the dishes from Jacque in this newsletter. She and her sister Marilyn can cook!!

David's House Ornaments

Dear White Mountain Decorative Painters Guild, 11-27-23

Many thanks for the beautiful
Christmas ornaments - our families will love them!

With much thanks,

Recipes

Breakfast Surprise

1 loaf white bread
1 lb. shaved cooked ham
1 block (8 oz) sharp cheddar cheese, grated
10 eggs
2 c. milk
1 tsp. dry mustard
Salt and pepper

2 c. crushed corn flakes
¼ c. melted butter

Butter bottom of 9x13" pan. Cut crusts off bread and cover bottom of pan with bread. Crumble ham on bread, then grated cheese on ham. In large bowl, beat eggs, milk, dry mustard, salt and pepper. Pour over cheese. Cover pan with foil and refrigerate overnight. Remove from refrigerator ½ hour before baking. Mix ¼ c. melted butter and crushed corn flakes. Sprinkle corn flakes on top and bake uncovered 1 hour at 350*. Let sit 10-15 minutes before serving.

If you want a vegetarian dish, slightly cook onions, peppers, broccoli (whatever you want) and drain really, really, really well. Use instead of ham. The ham casserole seems to be our favorite.

Enjoy,
Jacque Seastedt

Annual Raffle News!!

I want to announce the winners of the amazing prizes. The absolutely gorgeous placemats painted by Kris Lafayette of Billerica, MA went to Linnea Rydout of Ridge, NY, who was also the luckiest person that day scoring the Watercolor Pencil set and the beautiful bunny spring scene, metal pocket painted by Shirley Cochis of Hampstead, NH.

The $50 Visa gift card went to Kathy Tanguay of Chelmsford, MA and the Michaels $50 gift card went to Kris Lafayette.

The fabulous octagon box with a cute Santa and the acorn elves painted on the top went to Mae Snell of Concord, NH. She was so happy to receive it. It was donated and painted by Mary Kate Erickson of Las Vegas, NV.

The Snowshoe, pine and chickadee canvas winner was Terri Silva of Coral Springs, FL. I painted and donated this piece.

The Artful Webinar Certificate donated by Cindy Harrison went to Sandy Phillips of Milwaukee, OR. The Artroom2create certificate donated by Carolyn Swasey went to Sue Hodgkins of Concord, NH. I am excited to say that both of these lovely ladies have already informed me they will donate again for 2024!!!! Yaaaa, so let's start getting those tickets in.

I showed a few of the pieces I am gathering for next year's raffle at the November meeting. A square wooden sign that has 2 inserts that I am recruiting people to paint. A wonderful metal and wood tray that can have 2 designs painted on it. A Santa Piece painted by Donna Scully. I will give out more information on these at our Zoom meeting in January. As I said at our meeting, I would appreciate any gift cards or supply donations for both the large prizes and the incentive prizes I give out most months.

Lastly, I cannot thank everyone involved enough for donating, painting and purchasing tickets all year. Hoping for an even better total for 2024. This year was approximately $450 a little lower than last year. So please, every little bit counts and the prizes are well worth a few dollars.

The check can be made out to WMDPG and tickets always in newsletter for printing) filled out and sent to me Leeanne Kelly, 55 Tampa St. Nashua, NH 03064. Everyone have a wonderful New Year. Where did 2023 go?

*Thanks so much again
